Speaker: Attorney Pamela Greenfield will review Ballot Question #2

On Tuesday, November 6, 2012, Massachusetts residents will be asked to weigh in on a controversial issue that effects many of our elderly clients, maybe even ourselves and our loved ones in the future. Ballot Question Two asks: Does a person with a terminal illness have the right to end his or her life?"

Agenda: Distribute copies of and discuss the proposed law in detail Talk about the arguments for and against Discuss portion of the law which requires that the patient be competent and how this works in a dementia context
